

2011 Supreme Extreme Mustang Makeover Adoption & Competition

Q&A

1. What is the Supreme Extreme Mustang Makeover Adoption? This adoption is an effort by the Mustang Heritage Foundation and the Bureau of Land Management's Wild Horse & Burro Program to increase the adoption of wild horses by providing an opportunity for the public to adopt wild horses via competitive bid that are eligible to compete for $200,000 during the 2011 Supreme Extreme Mustang Makeover.

2. What is meant by the term "adoption"? When you "adopt" a wild horse through the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) you are promising to care for the horse in a suitable environment. After caring for the horse for 12 months, the adopter is eligible to receive title, or ownership, from the Federal government. Once obtaining the Certificate of Title, the horse becomes your private property.

3. How do I adopt? Only approved adopters will be eligible to adopt through the televised Supreme Adoption event on April 16th. Only approved adopters will receive a bidder's number and the necessary call in information. To become approved, submit the adoption application found at www.extrememustangmakeover.com and mail to the Mustang Heritage Foundation, P.O. Box 979, Georgetown, TX 78626 by March 1st. Upon application approval, Superior Productions will contact you to provide you with a bidder's number. By submitting the adoption application you are expressing intent to adopt, however application approval does not guarantee that you will win a bid and adopt an animal. Adoption becomes final only by bidding via phone or in studio and winning the bid during the April 16th Supreme Adoption event. Pending application approval, potential adopters will be eligible to adopt one to four animals. All adoptions are final and payment will be made April 16th. The adopter is responsible for all adoption and care related costs; there are no refunds or reimbursements.

4. How many horses are available for adoption? 200.

5. What are the characteristics of the horses offered in the Supreme Adoption? The horses offered for adoption are all wild (ungentled) Mustangs, 4 to 5 years-old, mares and geldings, gathered from Colorado, Nevada, Oregon, Utah and Wyoming, bays, browns, blacks, sorrels, buckskins, roans, chestnuts, palominos, duns, and grays. They are current on Coggins and vaccinations. Preview all horses at www.extrememustangmakeover.com.

6. Can I go to the BLM facility and look at the horses before the adoption? No. The horses are only available for preview online. Go to www.extrememustangmakeover.com to preview the horses. If you do not have internet service you can purchase a DVD, which includes the same footage that is found online, for $10. Please call the office to place an order.

7. What is the Supreme Extreme Mustang Makeover competition? The Supreme Extreme Mustang Makeover is a competition that allows the public to adopt a wild Mustang(s) via competitive bid during the Supreme Adoption on April 16th, train the horse(s) for approximately 90 days or find a trainer to train the horse(s), then bring the horse(s) to Fort Worth, Texas on September 15-17, 2011 to compete for a shot at $200,000 in prize money ($50,000 is guaranteed to the winner of the Legends division). $150,000 paid out in 3 divisions, 3 finals performances, 3 incentive categories and more! Only horses adopted during the April 16th Supreme Adoption are eligible to compete. (All prize money will be paid to the adopter of the horse, not exhibitor). The adopter is responsible for the horse at all times. Additional rules and regulations are located online at www.extrememustangmakeover.com. Or call (512) 869-3225 for more information.

8. How is the Supreme Extreme Mustang Makeover different from a regular Extreme Mustang Makeover? The Supreme Extreme Mustang Makeover is the only Makeover that requires the horse to be adopted before training and competing. All other Extreme Mustang Makeover competitions hold an adoption at the conclusion of the competition.

9. What are the competition elements of the Supreme Extreme Mustang Makeover?

- a) Supreme Trail Class -- intended to show the horse's ability and willingness to perform several tasks that might be asked of him during the course of a normal trail ride or work day and to show the horse's ability to move at a working speed with the rider.
- b) Supreme Pattern Class - requires competitors to complete a pattern consisting of basic horsemanship maneuvers.
- c) Trainers Choice Class - intended to show the horse's ability to work in either the a Western elements class or an English elements class – exhibitors will choose to show in one of the designated classes. The western elements class will include cow work and the English elements class will include jumps. There will also be 3 incentive categories offered to those adopters who will be showing their own horse. The incentive categories will be; 50 and Over Silver Bullets, 18-21 Young Guns and Rookies. These incentive awards will be paid to the top 5 placing exhibitors in each division. The placing will be based on the cumulative score of the preliminary classes only and will not including the finals. The scoring system, class details, prize money breakdown, etc. can be found in the Rules & Regulations posted online at www.extrememustangmakeover.com/supremeextreme.

10. What is the competition schedule for the 2011 Supreme Extreme Mustang Makeover? Adopters will be required to check in with their Mustang(s) on Wednesday September 14th and the competition will be held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, September 15-17th, 2011. A more detailed schedule can be found at www.extrememustangmakeover.com/supremeextreme.

11. What is the Mustang Heritage Foundation? The Mustang Heritage Foundation is a 501(c)(3) public, charitable, nonprofit organization. The mission of the Mustang Heritage Foundation and the goal of the Extreme Mustang Makeover is to increase the adoption of mustangs across the country. The Mustang Heritage Foundation created the Extreme Mustang Makeover event to showcase the recognized value of mustangs through a national training competition.
